CONN BRO'S

Local Items.

Don't fail to see Shungopavi.

Mr. F. P. Frisbie is moving into his drug store adjoining Citizens National Bank, and will be ready for business Saturday. He has put a modern front in the store and when ones passes he is reminded of fourth avenue, Louisville.

Wonderful.

The Indian, Shungopavi, is a magician of world-wide reputation. He will be at Court House Wednesday night, January 27th. Reserved seats 50 cents, Storms drug store. General admission 35c. Children 25c.

Assistant Cashier.

In a recent report of the condition of the Citizens Bank and Trust Company of Middlesboro, we attribute much of the success of the institution to the energies of our friend, J. C. Rucker, formerly of this city, who is now assistant cashier.

Will Move.

We note from the Wayne County Outlook, that M. D. and E. M. Shearer, who sold their farm to S. D. Cochran, have purchased a hardware business in Monticello. While we wish them much success we regret to lose them from our county.

Death.

Mrs. W. P. Kinkead, who lived near Lancaster, died Sunday afternoon, of pneumonia. Funeral Monday afternoon. She was forty five years of age, and leaves her husband and seven children to mourn her loss. She was a most excellent lady.

A Bargain in Land.

If sold quick we can offer a splendid bargain in a 190 acre farm. Well located, well improved, well fenced and well watered. Two large tobacco barns, stock barns, tenant houses, splendid dwelling, in fine state of cultivation. Price $65 per acre. Apply to Hughes & Swinebroad. This place is 4 miles from Lancaster.

Water.

Mayor Logan says that we have about ten feet of water in lake, seven feet of which is available. Several of the largest users will be put under the Meter system, which should have been done long ago. We suggest that the largest "wasters" as well as users be put under same system, believing that if this had been done, we would never have suffered for water. There are a few who waste more than they use. If they want stop it, cut 'em out. Mr. Mayor.

See the Indian Wednesday night.

TO DELINQUENTS.

You have been warned by our predecessor concerning the Postal Law, by which a paper will not be carried through the mails that is one year in arrears on subscription. Call at office on court day and settle.

Court house Wednesday night.

Ladies Aid Society meets Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. J. B. Haselden, and a full meeting is desired.

The trial of Andy Broughton and Charles Major, charged with killing Mrs. Major, was continued until next Saturday, on account of an absent witness.

Attractive Performance.

The mysteries attending such an entertainment as that of the Indian Magician always draws a large crowd. At Court House January 27th.

For Training.

Prof. Mack Hughes, of Danville, shipped from this place today, Eleanor C., for John McRoberts, of Danville, Montgomery Star, for Geo. B. Robinson, of Danville and Artist Boy, for John Buster, of Burgin, to Wm. Shropshire, at Winchester, who has a statewide reputation for handling saddle horses. He will enter these in the Kindergarten class, after which they will be turned over to Prof. Mack Hughes who will give them the highest degree.

Union Services.

One of the most effective services ever held in Lancaster, was the Union Communion Service, held by the Presbyterian, Methodist and Christian churches, Sunday night. After the observance of the Lord's Supper, a most impressive sermon, on "Life," was delivered by Rev. C. C. Brown, of the Presbyterian church. Last week's prayer meeting, followed by this Union Communion Service, seems to be the beginning of an era of Christian love and unity, such as is taught in the Scriptures. Let the good work go on.

Ford Motor Car.

The enterprising firm of Haselden Brothers, who have the Blue-grass agency for the well known Ford Motor Cars, have received a new one, which is on display in their window. The firm is exceedingly lucky in securing the services of Mr. George B. Harris to demonstrate the superiority of this machine. If the many prospective buyers, who are in correspondence with this firm will call at their store, and allow Mr. Harris to show them the strongest features of this machine, the "Autos" will soon be as numerous in Garrard county as good looking women.

Sad Death.

While hunting Monday, Volley and Willie, sons of Sam Ray on Poor Ridge, ran a rabbit into a log. Volley told his brother to put his hat at one end, while he went to the other end to shoot through at it. Either Willie misunderstood or for some reason he stooped and looked into log, when his brother fired at rabbit. Dr. Amon was called and reported that the rifle ball entered above left eye and lodged in the brain of Willie, paralyzing his left side. Death followed at ten o'clock Monday night. The burial took place Tuesday at Buckeye. The boys belonged to an excellent family and universal regret prevails, throughout the community.

The death of Lady Lily Beresford, who was formerly the Duchess of Marlborough, and the daughter of Commodore Cicero Price, a native of Lancaster, occurred on January 11th at Brighton, a famous South Britain resort where she had gone seeking restoration to health. Lady Beresford had been on a decline for over a year, with little or no hope of recovery. She leaves a 12 year-old son and was the widow of Lord Wm. Beresford, an English naval officer. She was married 3 times, her first husband being Louis C. Hammersley, a New York millionaire and her second, the late Geo. Chas. Spencer, former Duke of Marlborough.

The remains were taken to Carraghmore, the Irish seat of the Waterford family, to rest beside her last husband, Lord Wm. Beresford. Lady Beresford was sister-in-law of Mrs. Geo. Cornwall West, formerly Lady Randolph Churchill and was said to have contracted the marriage between Consuelo Vanderbilt and her step-son, the present Duke of Marlborough. Her mother was a Miss Warren, of Troy, N. Y., and her father, Commodore Cicero Price, the eldest brother of the late Dr. Jennings Price and N. B. Price, of this place, the late Ashburn Price, of Lexington, and Johnson Price, of California. Lady Beresford was first cousin of Ashburn, Johnson, Ed. A. S. and N. B. Price, Mrs. M. Frisbie and Mrs. J. W. Grant, of this city, Cicero Price, of Clark county, W. C. Price, of Danville, and Mrs. S. P. Grant, also of Danville, and to whom Lady Beresford bore a striking resemblance.

Don't forget Indian show January 27th.

Shungopavi.

This noted Indian Magician with his company of illusionists, among whom is Youna, the American Japanese Juggler, will appear at the Court House, on 27th day of January, at eight o'clock p. m., under auspices of the I. O. O. F. Reserved seats 50c, general admission 35c, children 25c.

Excellent Service.

Mr. Richard Bird, chief clerk of railway mail service, at Cincinnati Ohio, met the business men of Lancaster by appointment, on Tuesday, 19th. After discussing the situation, he agreed to the following changes in our mail service, which is practically all we ask for.

All registered and first class mails will leave Lancaster on following schedule, and all mail must be in post office thirty minutes before departure of trains. At 5:16 a. m. (daily except Sunday), for points North to Cincinnati; 11:29 a. m. (daily) for points North to Cincinnati; 10 a. m. (daily except Sunday) for points South to Middlesboro, Knoxville etc.; 2:29 p. m. (daily), for Stanford and Louisville; 8:35 p. m. (daily except Sunday) for Cincinnati, Middlesboro, Knoxville and Atlanta. On Thursday they will be a newspaper pouch service, for the benefit of The Record to Paint Lick, leaving Lancaster at 2 p. m. on No. 70, this will insure The Record subscribers in north end of county, receiving their paper on time. All trains carry registered mail except trains leaving at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

Post master West assures us that an effort will be made to give the patrons of the office using lock boxes an opportunity by which they can secure their mail day or night, or during holidays. This change can be made by the rearranging of fixtures and we feel confident that this greatly needed improvement will be made as our excellent post master always favors anything for the good of the community.
